

The Cornhuskers Vanquish Oregon Aggies by Score of 17 to 7

Last Period Fight Gives Nebraska Victory, 17-7

Most of the Cornhuskers Were Consistent Gainers Against the Celebrated Oregon Aggies, Whereas But One Western Man Could Make Ground.

BY R. A. CRONIN. Special Dispatch to the World-Herald.

Portland, Ore., Oct. 21.—Showing better team work, an ability to tackle and to kick the wind out of the sails of the Oregon Aggies, and a more varied system of play, the University of Nebraska won this afternoon the intercollegiate classic, 17 to 7.

But for an unfortunate fumble by Caloy, as he was crossing the goal line in the second quarter, the count would have been 23 or 24 to 0, depending on the goal-kicking ability of Big Tim Corey.

The ball slipped out of Caloy's hands and into the paws of Right Halfback Tuffy Conn of the Aggies, who sprinted 101 yards for a touchdown.

Inasmuch as Conn can do the quarter in fifty seconds most any old day, runner and the other fast men of Nebraska had no chance to run him out of bounds.

Nebraska clearly outclassed the Oregon team the first quarter, but the entire offensive of the Aggies caused a standstill in the second quarter.

From the time the Nebraska line was able to run ends, while Caloy, Bissett and Tacklo Walker were yet in the game, the Nebraska line was assaulting the Aggie line and the holes were ripped in it by Caloy, Otopalk and Dobson.

NORTHWESTERN PROVES SUPERIOR TO CHICAGO

Sparkling Game Upsets Big Nine Dope, and Gives Evanston Team 10-0 Win.

Is First Time in Fifteen Years That Chicago Humbled by Northwestern.

Marshall Field, Chicago, Ill., Oct. 21.—Northwestern is back on the football map, a fitty Driscoll and a few other purple and red warriors put it there today, when Stagg's Maroons, touted as "Big Nine" title possibilities, fell before the North Shore school by 10 to 0.

It was a case of being whipped by a superior foe, and there was no alibi for the Midway aggregation.

Northwestern swept Stagg field with a surprisingly strong team. The fleet-footed backs ripped through Stagg's wall at will and on defense Stagg's attack. With their speed and natural ability they also boasted a game knowledge that was astounding.

Stagg's tricky shift plays could not disconcert them, and on the other hand they staged stuff that the well prepared maroons could not fathom.

There simply was no department of the game at which Stagg's men could show their foes anything.

Driscoll was the shining light of the battle that was witnessed by some 12,000 individuals. He could gain through Chicago's line and found the ends with equal ease.

There was no stopping him, and he carried the ball across the line and kicked the goal from ten yards.

He who added 3 points on a beautiful drop kick, from the forty-yard line.

DUBUQUE HOLDS THE CREIGHTON TEAM IN

Game That Was Expected to Go to Blue and White Easily, Ends in 6-6 Tie.

Open Style and End Run Sends Flannagan Over for the Omaha School's Score.

Special Dispatch to the World-Herald. Dubuque, Ia., Oct. 21.—Dubuque college and Creighton university battled to a 6-6 tie here this afternoon. The result completely upset the dope, as it had been anticipated Creighton would pile up a big score.

When the teams appeared on the field it was estimated Creighton outweighed Dubuque more than ten pounds to the man, but it was one instance where beef didn't count.

In the first half Creighton was on the defensive most of the time and was forced to punt every time it got the ball. It was a blocked punt in Creighton's thirty-yard line in the second quarter that gave Dubuque its touchdown.

In the second half Creighton took the offensive. In the third quarter a long forward pass put the ball on Dubuque's four-yard line. After two line plunges failed, Platz made another long side pass to Flannagan, who carried the ball over.

Hawkeyes Romp With Purdue's Grid Squad

Special Dispatch to the World-Herald. Iowa City, Ia., Oct. 21.—Opening a bag of tricks, line smashes, end runs and forward passes, which kept Purdue in a continual state of bewilderment, the University of Iowa football squad this afternoon overwhelmed the Boilermakers, 24 to 0.

Quarterback Jenkins was easily the star of the game and his forty-five yard run to touchdown through the entire Purdue team was the feature. Huffin, Vanaker, Hake and Allen proved the best ground gainers for Purdue, but the squad seemed unable to follow up its advantage.

Haskell Indians Give Wisconsin a Surprise

Madison, Wis., Oct. 21.—Wisconsin won a costly victory from Haskell today, 13 to 0. In a plunge late in the final period, Eber Simpson, the star Haskell halfback, was thrown hard and received a severe injury to his left knee. He will be out of the Chicago game. Haskell surprised Wisconsin and the Badgers were forced to play their hardest to win a game featured by long runs and fierce tackling.

Cornell Defeats Bucknell Team. Ithaca, N. Y., Oct. 21.—Cornell defeated Bucknell in a hard fought game this afternoon by the score of 19 to 0, finding the Pennsylvania team a stubborn opponent with a strong line defense. The Cornell team led in the first half with a sensational drop kick of forty-five yards made by Fritz Shiverick, Cornell quarterback.

GRAND ISLAND TOO STRONG FOR OMAHA

Delamater's Squad Loses to Up-State Men by 28 to 0 in a Hard-Fought Game.

Collegians Heavier and More Experienced Than University Boys in Game.

BY ROSS H. CHAMBERLEN. Exhibiting proficiency galore in the executions of forward passes, the heavy Grand Island college squad yesterday afternoon triumphed over the University of Omaha men, 28 to 0, in their annual clash, staged this season at Ducky Holmes' park, here.

The Grand Island boys outweighed Omaha several pounds to the man, and were superior in practically every department of the game. Omaha's only real classy showing came in the final few seconds of play, when a crisp cross and a beautifully executed pass netted a substantial gain.

At the serial game, however, Grand Island was a wizard. A couple of sharp, snappy flips for an average of fifty yards, and then a line buck usually netted the desired touchdown. Omaha saved herself several times by punting from a dangerous position.

The field was more or less sloppy, particularly the part used in playing baseball, and it was difficult for the men to keep their feet. This retarded runs and interfered a great deal in the successful execution of plays.

Coach Morrow's collegians showed more prowess in the intricacies of the game than did Coach Delamater's men. The Omaha university boys appeared to lack team practice. The team was up against a stronger squad yesterday, and the inevitable was bound to occur.

Grand Island's left end, John, scored the first touchdown early in the first period when he was hit through center. The ball had been passed, Lowry to John, a second before. Lowry kicked goal.

Omaha held the collegians the second period, although thrown for a loss time and again. The third quarter found the Grand Island men gathering another touchdown when a succession of end runs sent Lowry over. He kicked another goal.

The fourth period produced a brace of tallies for the Grand Island men. Line plunges, coupled with short passes, always perfectly executed, sent Goldenstein and Taylor both over. Lowry kicked both goals.

This fellow Lowry, Grand Island's captain, covered more ground and altogether occupied the center of the stage yesterday to the practical exclusion of the other twenty-one men. He was here, there and everywhere, juggling the ball and taking part in the scrimmages, and never failing to make his yards whenever given the oval.

Quarterback Button managed the team like a veteran, too, and kept the men working all the time.

On offense Grand Island showed an amazing assortment of plays. On defense it was impossible to get a line on the squad. The ball was kept in Omaha's territory most of the time. Omaha's defense was so much weaker than Grand Island's that it was impossible for the university boys to make substantial gains at any one time.
